

Links

Parrone Engineering believes in building professional and community relationships; they provide us with new insights and are one of the cornerstones of our success. Our firm is proud to be the Engineer of the Town of Walworth and the Village of East Rochester. Understanding that knowledge is power, we look to the American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC) to keep us informed of engineering trends and developments that can be applied to all of our projects.

American Council of Engineering Companies

<http://www.acec.org/>

Town of Walworth

<http://www.townwalworthny.com/>

Village of East Rochester

<http://www.eastrochester.org/>

Application for Sign Permit

Application Form - Zoning Board of Appeals

Authorization to Make Application

Concept Subdivision Review Checklist

Final Subdivision Review Checklist

Monroe County Development Referral Form

Planning/Architectural Review Board Application

Preliminary Site Plan Review Checklist

Preliminary Subdivision Review Checklist

Procedures for Variances and Appeals

Special Use Permit Application Form

Special Use Permit Process

Town/Village of East Rochester Official Zoning Map

Parrone Engineering has aligned ourself with local firms in order to provide full design services. Together with our strategic partners, we have extensive experience and widespread industry familiarity that will help us successfully complete projects for our clients. Please visit the websites of our strategic partners to learn how our alliances can benefit your company.

SWBR Architects

<http://www.swbr.com>

M/E Engineering, P.C.

<http://www.meengineering.com>

SEI Design Group

<http://www.seidesigngroup.com>

GeoQuest Environmental Inc.

<http://www.geoquestenvironmental.com>

Foundation Design, P.C.

<http://www.foundationdesignpc.com>

Environmental Resources, LLC

Environmental Resources, LLC is an ecological resource management based firm, specializing in land and water resource evaluation. The firm works closely with residential, commercial and industrial developers, engineering and design firms, public utilities, and local, state and federal governments throughout the northeast. Natural Resource Consulting Services include: Wetlands Consulting, Rare, Threatened, and Endangered Species Studies, Wildlife Studies, Woodlot Assessments, and Ecological Management Plans.

For more information about Environmental Resources, LLC and the services that the company provides, please contact Gene Pellett, Wetlands Ecologist/Member at (585) 594-4450 or gpellett@rochester.rr.com.